Opening: "Evidence" at Metro Pictures

"Evidence," a group exhibition organized by artist Josh Kline, brings together work by Paul Chan, Oto Gillen, Kline, Gloria Maximo, Liz Magic Laser, Paul Pfeiffer, and Allyson Vieira. The show's focus is twofold, as participating artists consider issues of class inequality as well as increased capabilities to manipulate truth through altering images, videos, and sounds. From Gillen's haunting photographs of One World Trade Center to Kline's sculptural portraits of service staff workers, the works featured in the exhibition are diverse in terms of subjects and stylistic approaches.
